College Placement Services

Shane Reiser

We are pleased to announce that Shane Reiser will be in attendance at this year's IJM. Tuesday afternoon, June 29, the IJM will host an informal cookout during the long drive championship for parents and players, and this will be an ideal time to discuss college placement services available with Shane's company, Preferred College Advising. The IJM has maintained a relationship with Shane for several years and we are pleased to have him back again.

Shane Reiser is a College Placement Consultant with Expertise in the World of Junior Athletics. As a competitive athlete in multiple sports, and a Senior Certified David Leadbetter Golf Instructor, Shane has developed countless Collegiate Players and placed hundreds of young student-athletes into Universities across the US. With his positive mind-set and ability to connect with his students, success is contagious.

Having coached and mentored Junior Golfers for over 20 Years, Shane has developed a process that works and achieves results. He will assist in forming a game plan that is critical to every student-athlete's development, from competition strategy to communication skills. What sets him apart is his ability to make players better and believe their own abilities and dreams. Shane is prepared to assist in multiple ways.
